NEENAN—John Neenan, until three years ago a resident of St. Joseph, and well known in Plattsburg, died of apoplexy Friday night, at the age of seventy eight years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Timothy Shea, at Plattsburg, Mo. He was a native of Ireland and located in St. Joseph forty years ago.

He is survived by a son and daughter, James M. Neenan and Mrs. Timothy Shea, both of Plattsburg. The late John J. Neenan, who was police sergeant in St. Joseph, was also his son.

The funeral was held Monday, the remains being brought to this city and interred in Mount Olivet Cemetery.
