

McAnaw Dies Today At Hospital

MIDLOTHIAN— James Edward McAnaw, 45, died today at W.C. Tenery Hospital. He had been a resident of Midlothian for the past four years.

Mr. McAnaw was a superintendent for a Waxahachie construction company at the time of his death. He was born April 16, 1927, at Walters, Okla., and was a member of the First Baptist Church and a World War II army veteran.

Funeral services are slated for Thursday at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Midlothian with the Rev. Bill Nichols, the Rev. Jerry Hall and the Rev. Sam Thomas officiating. Burial will be in the Mexia City Cemetery at Mexia under the direction of Boze-Mitchell Funeral Home of Waxahachie.

Survivors include his widow, of Midlothian; one son, James Edward McAnaw, Jr., of Midlothian; a daughter, Amy June McAnaw, of Midlothian; three step-sons, Davey Jan Smith and Joe Dean Smith, both of Stephenville, and Van Allen Zimmerman, Sr., of Oklahoma; two step-daughters, Mrs. Pam Cannon and Molly Ann Smith, both of Stephenville; his mother, Mrs. J.J. McAnaw of Knoxville, Tenn.; one brother, John J. McAnaw, Jr., of Bartlesville, Okla.; two sisters, Mrs. Betty Miller of Dallas and Mrs. Sara Petty of Knoxville, Tenn.